

Weather Today

Fair and Colder.

Silver and Lead Quotations.

The silver and lead quotations yesterday were as follows:
Bar silver, 25 1/2 cents.
Lead, brokers, $2.50; exchange, $2.75.
Copper, lake, $19.75; casting, 19.25.

CITY CIRCULATION.

The City Circulation of The Herald has been subscribed to by Mr. J. O. McCracken. Subscribers who do not receive their papers promptly will confer a favor if they make complaint to The Herald counting room.

checks for city subscriptions should be made payable to
J. O. McCRACKEN,
City Circulator.

TOWN TALK.

State Treasurer Chipman now has funds on hand to pay registered warrants up to and including No. 800.

Articles of incorporation of the A. Madison & Sons Mercantile company, with a capital stock of $10,000, were filed yesterday with the secretary of state. The company's principal place of business is a "Monte Carlo" in Salt Lake.

Governor Wells yesterday appointed Dr. Bryant Stringham, of Bountiful, a member of the state board of medical examiners to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. A. N. Graves, of Ogden, and the resignation of Dr. T. E. Ensign, of Salt Lake, to accept the appointment.

Yesterday's clearings were $308,840, as compared with $275,387 for the corresponding day of last year. This is the first day that has shown a decrease in a long while, but the showing for the month displayed a heavy gain over the right time, the total being $3,890,352, as compared with $3,491,923 for November, 1896.

County Treasurer Lynch announces that he will not receive any money from delinquent taxpayers until after next Monday. This action is rendered necessary because of the heavy delinquency in the full force of clerks to make up the delinquent tax list for publication in The Herald. It will require all the time from now till the end of the week to prepare the list for the printers, there being $300,000 and delinquencies in delinquency.

The Tintic Lumber company, with a capital stock of $100,000, divided into 10 shares, filed articles of incorporation yesterday with the county clerk. The purpose of the incorporation is to operate mining properties in Tintic district and elsewhere. The board of directors consists of William Hatfield, vice president; George W. Snow, secretary and treasurer; and Charles W. Hatfield and George W. Hatfield constitute the board of directors.

Abstracts furnished, titles insured, and interest paid on deposits by Utah Title Insurance and Trust company, 106 Main street.

Utah Commercial and Savings Bank General banking business, pays 5 per cent on deposits. P. Auerbach, president; P. W. Madsen, vice-pres.; J. E. Jennings, cashier; 24 E. 1st South street.

Dr. A. B. Peak, dentist, has moved his office to Commercial block, corner of Commercial and Second South, rooms 76 and 79.

UTAH COAL.

Castle Gate lump, $4.50; Castle Gate nut, winter quarters lump and nut, $4.25, and anthracite, all sizes, $3.50, delivered.

Having opened a yard on State and Eleventh South streets, we will now deliver coal to any part of the city at the above price.

P. V. COAL CO.
Office 73 Main st. D. J. Sharp, agent; telephone, 423.

Ellerbeck Coal Company.
Office 110 South Main, phone 222.
P. R. ELLERBECK, B. F. REDMAN.

The Keeley Institute.
For the treatment of liquor, morphine, and other habits. No. 17 1/2 State street, First North. Correspondence strictly confidential.

Here is a Leader.
Boys' heavy weight overcoat suits; regular price, $2.50; this week, sacrifice price, $1.45.

F. AUERBACH & BRO.

Advance sale on silk mufflers; $1.25 muffler, 75c; $1.50 muffler, $1.00.
R. K. THOMAS DRY GOODS CO.

The largest lot of Christmas presents for everybody and lowest prices in the city. 24 Main street, opposite Z. C. M. I. Branch Pembroke Stat. Co.

Kid Gloves Trimmed Away.

With every ladies' trimmed hat sold at $3 and up, we give you free one pair ladies' two-clasp fancy back kid gloves, worth $1.25, in any size, this week.

NEW YORK CASH STORE.

The Great Economy Sale
At F. Auerbach & Bro.'s this week will eclipse all previous sales in point of magnificent bargains.

F. AUERBACH & BRO.
Choice Seal jackets, collarettes, coats, capes, muffs, novelties, blouses, trimmings, stoles, rugs, suits, sets, robes, styles, variety, work, pieces, furrier, Knutsford.

That boys' heavy ulster overcoat we are selling for $3, $4, $5 to $17. It's a beauty. F. AUERBACH & BRO.

Every whale has its barnacle. Every success has imitators. We have heard of them. The famous are the standards, they are reliable.

SAM LEVY Mfg. Co.
Wednesday, December 1st, 1897.
From 10 till 11 o'clock.

Genuine Fruit of the Loom Bleaching, that sells the world over at 10c per yard, 10 yards to a customer, at per yard.

5 CENTS
At F. AUERBACH & BRO.

Dr. E. M. Keyes, relocated in the Auerbach building, second floor. Rooms 200-201, 162 Main street.

The Largest Stock of Boys' Clothing. The most handsome variety of styles ever seen in the city, to be sacrificed during our great economy sale this week. F. AUERBACH & BRO.

Suspenders.
To close out stock of suspenders, 10c, 15c and 25c per pair.

Stop That Cough By Wearing
A suit of our all-wool natural gray underwear for $1.50.

F. AUERBACH & BRO.
Notice to Stockmen.

Forty acres of fodder and corn in the shuck for sale at the city sewage farm. For prices enquire at the office of the city engineer, room 302, city and county building.

Fasciators.
A great sale on Fasciators. 25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00, worth double.

R. K. THOMAS DRY GOODS CO.

Knit Underwear.
We will offer 50 dozen Ladies Blue Mottled, knit vests and drawers at 25c each, worth 40c.

R. K. THOMAS DRY GOODS CO.
Are You Interested
In boys' and children's clothing? We are making immense sacrifices throughout the entire stock.

F. AUERBACH & BRO.
48 and 50 Main.
Earl & Wilson's 25c Men's Collars 15c each.

R. K. THOMAS DRY GOODS CO.
Ice Wool Shawls, black and cream, 35c, 50c, 75c, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 each under value.

R. K. THOMAS DRY GOODS CO.

BATTLE IS NOW ON

Today's Election Decides the High School's Fate.

TICKETS IN THE FIFTH

THREE BOGUS ONES CIRCULATED LAST NIGHT.

Ward Teachers Active in the Distribution—Contemptible Circulars Passed Around—Symons Issues a Manifesto From the First—He Will Try to Knock Out Critchlow—The Regular Ticket as Nominated.

Voters, here is the proper ticket to vote at the school election today, and all others are frauds and imitations.

FIRST WARD.
For the term of one year,
EDWARD B. CRITCHLOW.
For the term of three years,
E. W. WILSON.

SECOND WARD.
For the term of one year,
W. F. COLTON.
For the term of three years,
ARNOLD G. GIAUQUE.

THIRD WARD.
For the term of one year,
WILLIAM J. NEWMAN.
For the term of three years,
RICHARD W. YOUNG.

FIFTH WARD.
For the term of one year,
CHARLES BALDWIN.
For the term of three years,
W. A. NELDEN.

Today the voters of Salt Lake will cast the ballot which will decide the personnel of the next school board, and the question as to whether or not the high school is to be maintained.

The regularly nominated candidates who will be voted for are as given above.

The location of the polling places will be as follows:
First Ward—Ricketts block, corner of State and Third South streets.
Second Ward—Corner of Third South and West Temple streets, in the West-land building.

Third Ward—Old Sixteenth ward schoolhouse, corner of First North and Fourth West streets.

Fourth Ward—Taggart's hall, No. 876 First street.

Fifth Ward—No. 54 East Second South street.

On account of the prospective ticket in the Fifth ward, consisting of Leonard G. Hardy, William G. Sears and R. H. McKaig, were appointed yesterday, to act in that precinct in conjunction with the three previously named.

On account of the fact that the only changes as to judges will be that J. A. DeValley in the Fourth will act in place of B. P. Thornburg, who is absent from the city, and J. E. Eldredge will take the place of Thomas W. Greenman in the Second, on account of the latter's connection with the registration office.

WAR IN THE FIFTH.

Four Tickets and a Circular Being Distributed.

Well, the war is on in the Fifth. There will be a battle royal there today when the election opens. There are four tickets in the field, and a circular.

The first ticket is the regular ticket, nominated at mass convention, held in the Grand theatre, containing the names of Charles Baldwin and W. A. Nelden.

Then there is another ticket. The following is a copy:

TICKET.
For members of the Board of Education for the
FIFTH MUNICIPAL WARD,
Salt Lake City.

For the term of one year,
ALEX. MACMASTER.
For the term of three years,
JOHN H. KELSON.

Then there is another. It is like the above, in place of John H. Kelson for three years, the name of the regular candidate, W. A. Nelden, is sustained.

And there is another, in which the names of Charles Baldwin and W. A. Nelden are substituted.

These tickets were distributed yesterday afternoon and late last evening. They were handed around from house to house, chiefly by the ward teachers, and a dozen people called on The Herald office last evening and stated that to be a fact.

The circular is a dandy, too. It is printed in all sizes of type from old-style black letter to modern plain. It is a lurid affair, and reads:

EDUCATION FOR ALL.
Improvement and Progress Without Extravagance.

Encourage Home Talent and Home Industry.

Employing Utah Teachers.
In the Best Schools.

Common Schools Furnish Substantial Mental Training.

All should receive it Free.
High Schools furnish Luxuries for all—who can afford it.

NECESSARIES FIRST—
LUXURIES AFTERWARD.
Replace the Ticket in envelope and vote it.

Now, in every instance where Gentiles furnished The Herald office with these circulars and tickets, the ticket left at their homes bore the name of McMaster and Nelden, and in every instance where the Mormons brought them to The Herald, the names on the ticket were McMaster and Kelson. Mormon and Gentile agreed that those who were doing the work were teachers in the ward in which they lived. The number of cases was such as to demonstrate that the movement was general, and that a house to house canvass had been made.

The ticket bearing the name of McMaster and Baldwin does not seem to have been circulated. The tickets were printed in the same office, and were evidently ordered by the same person. It is an evident intention to attempt to elect a ticket adverse to the high school.

From the circumstances, it would seem that it is the duty of every friend of the high school to go to the polls today and vote for the candidates favoring its continuance. It is patent that an attempt is to be made to defeat the high school. Those who wish to guard the principle that the children of this land shall be educated, should not permit any business to keep them from voting.

A Voter's View.
To the Editor of The Herald:

Read the contemptible argument of that circular in the Fifth ward. "Common schools furnish luxuries for all—who can afford it."

Mr. Day Laborer, Mr. Mechanic, Mr. Clerk, Mr. Merchant, Mr. Middle Class, that says to you that the schools will give your children the rudiments of an education, but if they want any more you will have to go down into your purse and pay for it. It says the schools will give the rich man's child the benefit of a common education, the same as yours, but there yours must stop, because you have not the money to pay for the advanced training, while the opulent person can give his darling the benefit of his more fortunate condition. It makes a distinction between yours and another's. It says that because you are poor your child must go through life commonly educated, while the children of the well to do will be better fitted.

Luxuries for all! Every state in the Union maintains high schools. It is a tax which every man cheerfully submits to. The salaries of other officials may be cut down, expenses may be reduced in every quarter, but the schools matters are different. Cy-clope-sweet Kansas, with all her misfortunes in the past, has never stunted her schools, and debt ridden as the state is she has never failed to maintain her educational facilities are second to none; that they stand unimpaired, monuments to Kansas grit and courage. The children are trained to battle with the different problems of life. Utah has in the past gloried in her schools. The system in this city has excited the admiration of the continent. Do you want stunted children? Do you save a few coppers for men who are amply able to pay the amount?

Suppose a man to be worth $10,000. The tax for keeping up the high school means an additional burden of 75 cents per year. That's the rate. Isn't the plea of economy rather specious? Isn't it lame?

What man worth $10,000 will vote to abolish the high school that he may save 75 cents per annum? Don't all speak at once. If there is one and he will send in his photograph it will be published free of charge, that every one may have a chance to look at him.

VOTER.
Fight in the First.

There is a fight over in the First ward. Charles Symons is agitating the subject of his election in circulars and letters, and is being answered by the ward teachers. He is the only candidate thus far and he stands with E. W. Wilson, not caring to antagonize that gentleman in the fight.

Mr. Symons' circular is a lengthy affair, and the salient points of the same are that the convention was packed. That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

That the voice of the majority did not count. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot. That he was a victim of a plot.

principles for which that convention was convened. Deserving to be buried so deep politically that it never will be able to bob up in another convention with his pockets full of printed tickets nominating himself for "whole hog" on November 1st.

But Mr. Symons' attitude in this matter is misleading in another important feature. His tools who are doing his bidding (whether for profit or loss) are not informed. He has instructed to pledge Mr. Symons either for or against maintaining the public schools, including the high school, as the exigencies of the case might require. As proof of this, witness the following conversation which took place between one of his distributors of circulars and tickets and a gentleman, resident in the First, who is preparing to substantiate the above:

"I bring you a ticket to vote tomorrow. 'What ticket is this?' 'This is Brother Symons' ticket.' 'Is Brother Symons all right on the school question?' 'Yes, Brother Symons is in favor of the high school.' 'If Mr. Symons is in favor of the high school, what advantage will there be in electing him?' 'Well, now, are you a brother?' 'Yes, I pay my tithing.' 'Then I will tell you. Brother Symons wants to reduce taxes by stopping the high school, and seeking to get out of the school system. He is pledged to maintain the public school system, including the high school. Mr. Symons is a dissatisfied office-seeker, going around and covering, seeking support without principle or platform. Issuing circulars which are misleading and false, with the ultimate and sole purpose evidently of gratifying some personal ambition. He is not in the wind for some time, to finally place the public school system in the control of the church of which Mr. Symons is a member.'"

Voters, which ticket will you support? NEOPHYTE.

Have Endorsed Smith.

The state committee of the Republicans, after a protracted session with the dice box, has endorsed George Smith, for the postoffice here, and Charles McHugh, for Ogden. Lake Greenwald, however, wears such a sweet smile of confidence that it seems he fears nothing the committee may do.

AMUSEMENTS.

"In Old Kentucky," which comes to the Salt Lake theatre tonight and Thursday evening contains so much of that old-time heartful morality and life that it always comes as a welcome surprise, and is a most successful melodrama. There are many more pretentious plays, but the opinion is ventured that none has achieved any where near the substantial success of this simple yet wonderfully attractive creation.

The glowing press reports of the "Clash of Normandy" success have had the effect of driving out of the theatre a boom. A guarantee has been raised by Provo people to bring the company there Friday, the 10th; Logan and Ogden people, Saturday, the 11th; and it plays in Ogden Monday evening next. The railroad will sell excursion tickets to each point visited by the company.

METEOROLOGICAL RECORD.

Yesterday's Observations at the Local Weather Bureau Office.

Salt Lake City, Nov. 30, 1897.
Barometer, 6 a. m., 25.73; 9 p. m., 25.70; thermometer, 6 a. m., 41; 6 p. m., 43. Relative humidity (per cent), 6 a. m., 54; 6 p. m., 71. Velocity of wind, 6 a. m., 10; 6 p. m., 10. Direction of wind, 6 a. m., south; 6 p. m., northwest. State of weather, 6 a. m., light rain; 6 p. m., sprinkling. Maximum temperature, 51 degrees; minimum temperature, 35 degrees; mean temperature, 43 degrees. For 22 years, 37 degrees. Excess for this date, 6 degrees; accumulated deficiency of temperature since Jan. 1, 220 degrees; accumulated excess of temperature since Nov. 1, 105 degrees. Precipitation (including rain, hail and melted snow), 5 inches; for 22 years, .05 inch; deficiency for this date, .05 inch. Accumulated deficiency since Nov. 1, 17 inch.

Forecast for Today: Following is the forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity for the 24 hours ending at 6 p. m. today: Fair and colder.

J. H. SMITH,
Observer Weather Bureau.

A DREAM ON TAP.

Mulvey said he voted for the lease after considering the committee's report. Continuing, he said: "Speaking about dreams, I will relate one I had today after lunch. I saw the councilmen going to the mayor and saying to him: 'Veto this lease, and we will not say anything about the contingent fund.' Again, a few minutes later, two councilmen came to the mayor: 'You veto the appropriation covering the paving tax rebates to the Brigham Young Trust company and others, and we will see that the council sustains your action.' Of course I don't believe very much in dreams, but I have been so impressed with these premonitions that I would like a little time to learn how really is any sign connected to the things that appeared to me in my dream."

As soon as Mulvey took his seat, some of the members cast knowing glances at each other, and it appeared to wonder how he dreamed what he related; others were a little bit ill at ease, but through it all the dreamy councilman, who had waxed eloquent with feigned earnestness, was perfectly composed. But the dream had its effect. Callister withdrew his objections to postponement and expressed his willingness to give Mulvey's week's time to consult the dream book and in other ways to substantiate his visionary ideas. Buckle alone voted against deferring action on the veto.

CHANGING STREET GRADES.

The street committee, reporting on the petition of Francis Fritsch and others for a modification of the grade on East Temple street, from First North to Second North, recommended that the city engineer be instructed to change the grade from First North northward, a distance of 330 feet, to a 13 per cent grade, instead of a 9.5 per cent grade at present.

Accompanying the report was a communication from the city engineer, protesting against the proposed increased grade, for the reason that the modification will necessitate the entire changing of the system of grades in the locality, raising the grade on Center street from First North northward, and making a fill-in in the street where it would be cut down. Further, Main street is the main approach to the capitol grounds, and the grade should be as high as possible. The present established grade of grade on this street, 4.5 per cent, is too steep, but it cannot be changed. The city engineer's protest concluded with the statement that if the grade is raised and the rate fixed at 13 per cent, as recommended by the committee, it will result in the low grade again at some future time, and under the present law the city will then be liable for the damage to the abutting property resulting from the change.

Lloyd was opposed to re-substantiating street grades, particularly this one, until the actual grading is done, no matter what the cost. He did not believe in keeping a record of grades by approved plans and other official data, which are subject to whimsical change.